

Linnéa,

You are such an amazing person, and I'm so happy to have you in my life. You are the best thing that ever happened to me.

I love spending time with you. You are so fun and interesting, and I always have a blast with you. You make me smile with your kindness, humour and charm. You always find a way to make me laugh, even if it is with your negative rizz. You are just so smart and beautiful, and I already can't imagine my life without you. I'm honestly just not sure how I could function without waking up next to you and talking every morning.

You are so special to me, and I hope (know) you feel the same way. I like you a lot, and I want to keep going on adventures with you. You make me happy, and I hope I can do the same for you. You are a wonderful person, and I'm so lucky to have met you.

I can't really think of more ways to express how I feel, you genuinely just make me so happy. I guess I don't really have much more to say, for once.

Jag älskar dig

Jack
